

The Cascading Effects of Giving

by Mark Oswood, Wenatchee

“When the dung beetle moves, ... know that something has moved it. And know that its movement affects the flight of the sparrow, and that the raven deflects the eagle from the sky, ... and know that all of this affects you and me, and the flea on the prairie dog and the leaf on the cottonwood.” Excerpt from Dance Hall of the Dead by Tony Hillerman

We are, all of us, nudgers. We nudge air and water, schools and neighborhoods, birds and insects. The ways and means of our nudging are many. One of these is our giving, of things tangible and intangible, knowing that much is at stake.

Our once-a-year donation request fledges in early autumn. Below, we list folks making donations through early January 2022. Please know that your contributions are much appreciated, now and always. Thank you. We'll list donations made after early January in the October 2022 Phlox. Larry and Penny Tobiska are “first responders” for donations received. The list of donors is derived from their data.
