

The mystery and beauty of the world

Mark Oswood, Wenatchee

A human life, so often likened to a spectacle upon a stage, is more justly a ritual. The ancient values of dignity, beauty, and poetry which sustain it are of Nature's inspiration; they are born of the mystery and beauty of the world.

Henry Beston,
The Outermost House (1928)

We are of the Earth. As we are sustained, we must be sustainers. This is you — belonging, giving of your time and resources, of your self — sustaining.

Our once-a-year donation request fledges in fall. We acknowledge donors twice a year, in the April and October Phloxes. We list below folks who have made donations since early September 2024 through mid-March 2025.

Donations made after mid-March will be listed in the October 2025 Phlox.

Please know that your contributions are much appreciated, now and always. Thank you.

Larry and Penny Tobiska are “first responders” for donations received.
